

Research

Sorry, this page is under construction yet.

At the moment most of my research activity is related to projects FEMDK and TochnogLib. To find more please use the links provided.

You can see my profile at Research Gate

You may also look at my Notebook page.

Projects

Currently I actively take part in the following project:

- FEMDK – Finite Element Method Development Kit
- BSTools – development of BSTools package for modeling curves and surfaces
- HTMC – multi-field modeling of porous media
- TochnogLib – extending FEM kernel based on Tochnog program
